

Course Title: *Geo-Political Book Club

Instructor: Christy Buss

Email: christybuss001@gmail.com

Class Time and Meeting Dates: Once a month on Wednesdays (8/27, 9/17, 10/15, 11/19, 12/17, 1/21, 2/18, 3/25, 4/15 and 5/20 ) 2:00 – 2:50 PM EST

Course Description:

Join us for an engaging book club. We meet once a month over the school year to discuss a different geopolitical book. This book club is perfect for the homeschooled teen who is looking to add to their yearly book list or for the student who has an interest in world politics.

Students will read and discuss a variety of books covering an array of issues. We will meet ten times for a lively and insightful discussion about the books and the main political issues each one tackles.

In addition, students will be asked to come up with their own questions for each book and share their thoughts with me and the class.

Course Objectives:

1. To gain a more comprehensive understanding of key geopolitical issues and global political systems
2. To develop critical thinking and analytical skills through the evaluation of political themes, historical context, and the impact of the geopolitical decisions presented in the books
3. To contribute thoughtful questions and insights that encourage dialogue around complex political issues
4. To practice articulating ideas clearly and respectfully, engaging in discussions that promote understanding of different viewpoints within the realm of global politics
5. To build a diverse reading foundation, gaining exposure to different authors, regions, and political ideologies
6. To encourage thoughtful reflection on major geopolitical events and trends, considering how these issues shape the world
